30 Years Strong

DEVOTED TO RAISING AWARENESS AND ENDING HUNGER IN ORANGE COUNTY

1992
HARVESTERS IS FOUNDED BY JILL
JOHNSON-TUCKER &
JENNIFER VAN BERGH

THANK YOU TO OUR FOUNDERS

It started 30 years ago. In an effort to address a shortfall in funding at Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County, then board member Jill Johnson-Tucker organized an informal gathering with her dear friend, Jennifer Van Bergh. Their goal was modest: to connect with friends, tell them about the hungry in Orange County, and the work happening at Second Harvest. What happened next was incredible.

The pair invited 10 friends and asked them to invite friends. That day, 50 women showed up—and that is how Harvesters was born.

The inaugural Harvesters event ultimately sold out and netted nearly $50,000 for Second Harvest, much greater than the $5,000 goal. In a few short years, events would grow to raise $100,000, then $500,000, then $1M. After a recession, and even a global pandemic, Harvesters nets over $1M today.

Jill and Jennifer credit their success to the generosity of the community and the vital work of Second Harvest Food Bank. Harvesters recognizes these two friends for their ingenuity in establishing the organization, and their enduring passion to support all who struggle with food insecurity.

Community Of Friends

1995

Harvesters formalizes partnership with South Coast Plaza.

1997

Harvesters form partnership with KTLA Charities, a fund of the McCormick Tribune Foundation, which matches funds raised. Recent matching campaign partner, City National Bank, helps support record fundraising in 2020 & 2021.

2000

Harvesters volunteerism at Second Harvest Food Bank extends from senior grocery deliveries to helping launch the Backpack Program, providing children with nutritious kid-friendly food on Fridays and before holidays.

Over the years, Harvesters members and their families have volunteered tens of thousands of hours harvesting at the Incredible Edible Farm, serving food-insecure neighbors at community mobile pantries, and organizing emergency food drives during earlier recessions.

2004

Special Fund is formed and donates new tractor for gleaning and provides funding for three new Kids Cafes. To date, Special Fund has raised over $1M to support SHFB's mission critical projects.

2010

A Harvesters member and her young daughter develop a program to benefit Second Harvest, based on the daughter's imaginative, original book Izzy and the Candy Palace.

Working Together

2012

Harvesters celebrates its 20th Anniversary, $5.7M million raised since 1992.

2016

Harvesters Fund-A-Meal program begins raising funds from supporters who may not attend the annual event. To date, programming has raised over $200,000.

2013

"Plates of Love" program for children and young adults is launched by a Harvester.

This new programming provided an avenue for those under 18 to volunteer at, and fundraise for, Second Harvest Food Bank. Harvesters continues its youth initiative programs to teach about hunger in the community, while cultivating a philanthropic spirit.

Serving Our Neighbors

2017

Harvesters celebrates its 25th Anniversary, over $9M raised since 1992.

A Harvesters donor provides funding for a permanent school pantry at Mercado El Sol Science and Arts Academy, in support of Second Harvest's Bold Goal initiative.

2018

City National Bank makes its first donation as Corporate Legacy Harvest Sponsor. Their big-hearted giving has contributed over $375,000 to Second Harvest.

Harvesters, in partnership with Second Harvest, launches the Innovative Service Award, an annual recognition of community pantry partners who strive to serve their food-insecure clients.

2020

Harvesters holds its first ever virtual presentation of the Fashion Show at Segerstrom Center for the Arts.

Proud to be recognized as the first to provide Second Harvest with COVID-19 relief before any other organization.

2022

Harvesters celebrates its 30th year supporting Second Harvest, contributing over $14.5M since 1992.

2021

Harvesters members and their families join the community in painting a mural connecting the joy felt by all who serve Second Harvest.

Casey Leshner of Coldwell Banker Luxury Real Estate forms partnership with Harvesters; pledges $150,000 to feed our food insecure neighbors.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for supporting Harvesters 30th Anniversary Fashion Show & Luncheon Celebration. Can you believe it? Thirty years! Three decades of partnering to feed the most vulnerable in our community—children, families, seniors, college students and others who face hunger and food insecurity every day. These neighbors turn to Second Harvest and our network of pantries and partners for help, and we could not do it without you!

Over the last three decades, Harvesters support has been unwavering through distribution center location changes, evolutions in our distribution model and most recently a worldwide, multi-year pandemic. In 2020, Harvesters members rapidly answered our call for help in the early days of COVID-19 by becoming the first organization to provide pandemic relief funds when the community needed assistance the most. Harvesters also were hands-on, packing food boxes and volunteering at our weekly drive-thru food distributions at the Honda Center. Harvesters support in 2021 was record-breaking, raising over $1.8 million to ensure all are well fed in Orange County!

Second Harvest's nutritional strategy focuses on distributing not only the right quantity of food, but also providing consistent access to nutritious food. This includes the creation of our 45-acre

Harvest Solutions Farm in Irvine, which generates a bounty of local nourishment for our community. And to keep this produce fresher longer, Harvesters provided funding for cold storage to Second Harvest partner pantries. Through these contributions, Harvesters continues to support us in serving vulnerable and marginalized communities in Orange County.

While the height of the pandemic may be over, the ripple effects continue. Thousands of working families in Orange County continue to experience unemployment or under-employment. As they struggle to get back on their feet financially, they now face rising prices at the gas pump and the grocery store. Thanks to Harvesters support, Second Harvest continues to purchase, grow and receive donations of nutritious food for over 300,000 of our neighbors in need each month in Orange County.

Our work would simply not be possible without you. We are so very thankful.

With gratitude,

CB Keller
