

- Pro Bono Publico Award “For the Public Good”

This is a perpetual award that goes to the firm, company, or association that has the best all-around engagement and support for FFTB. Your firm/company/association name will be etched onto this award as the winner and your office will keep the award for the year.

When FFTB begins again the following year, the award will return to the Food Bank to wait the fate of her next “home.” Think of this as the “Stanley Cup” for the campaign.
